

Beachfront Dining at The Deck in Laguna Beach

<http://www.examiner.com/romance-travel-in-san-francisco/beachfront-dining-at-the-deck-laguna-beach>

Karla Erovvick

07/15/11

Everyone loves a beach holiday. Plan your next visit to Southern California to include a visit to Laguna Beach, where you can dine beachfront, get a massage or take a surf lesson at The Deck. This newly opened restaurant is located at the Pacific Edge, one of Joie de Vivre's hip hotels.

Experience the ultimate beachfront dining experience at The Deck. Located steps from the sand with panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean, this relaxing, 160 seat open-air restaurant offers a menu specializing in classic beach fare in a breathtaking setting. The Deck provides guests with a front row seat to watch surfers, paddle boarders, dolphins and sunsets, while providing the feeling of escaping to a faraway place, right in the heart of downtown Laguna Beach.

Guests can enjoy casual beach fare, sip freshly made cocktails, take a dip in the ocean, watch the surfers, or lounge in a cabana while getting a massage. Located right on The Deck, the colorful and spacious private cabanas offer a menu of various pampering services, including massages, mobile airbrush spray tanning and a personal photographer/videographer. The cabanas are perfect for private parties or even personal day retreats. Guests are encouraged to truly kick back and relax, enjoying California beach culture with a touch of urban sophistication.

For a romantic weekend, stay at the Pacific Edge Hotel, an oceanfront retreat located on an uninterrupted mile of beach in downtown Laguna Beach. Choose from either 27 comfortable suites or 104 deluxe guestrooms and enjoy two heated outdoor swimming pools, and a private Jacuzzi with access to both a spa and fitness center within walking distance. Guestrooms feature complimentary in-room coffee, deluxe pillow-top bedding, custom pillow menu allowing guests to maximize their comfort, complimentary wireless high speed internet and premium in-room private dining.

Dine at either of the two on-property restaurants: The Beach House and The Deck. Valet guest parking is provided on site. For more information about Pacific Edge Hotel or reservations, please call 866.932.2896 or visit www.pacifedgehotel.com. Whatever you do, don't miss out on this quintessential beach escape.

Getting there: Fly from San Francisco to Orange County or LAX booking through kayak.com for best fares. The flight is approximately an hour.